Pig Brand
The only one recommended by Physician because of its strengthening and very nutritious qualities.
The results of its use in cases of debility induced by accidental causes are marvellous. This Stout becomes assimilated with the blood in a more efficacious manner than any solids do, and it thus fortifies exhausted organisms. In cases of maternity its use is of the highest importance, for which this brand is universally recommended by the most distinguished members of the Faculty.

The general appearance of this forgery is so very similar to the genuine, that a careful examination is necessary to detect the fraud. Once the wine is tasted, the deception is quite apparent.

ZOEDONE

ZOEDONE
THE NEW DRINK
A restoring & stimulating but non-alcoholic
BEVERAGE
Letter from Dr Lucas, Bombay, Medical Dept. Author of the Elements of Indian Hygiene etc.
"I am of opinion that your invaluable aerated beverage Zoedone deserves the highest attention at the hands of the Indian public. It is not only a health giving drink but essentially, containing as it does the quadruple phosphates of Iron, Lime, Potash, and Soda, a health restoring drink par excellence, reviving and refreshing the vital powers. It would be a blessing indeed if we could see it introduced into hotels, restaurants, regimental messes and canteens. To weekly females in India it would decidedly tend not only to the amelioration of their own health, but that of their offspring, the future generations of men and women. I need scarcely allude to its indication as a remedial and dietetic agent in cases of malarial cachexy, phithis etc."
Letter from Geo. S. A. Ranking. M.A. M.D., Cantabe Surgeon, Indian Medical Department.
"I am of opinion that in Zoedone is to be found a complete solution of the problem which has long exercised the minds of the Medical profession in India, viz., the discovery of a beverage which shall assuage thirst, restore nervous waste, and while being palatable, be also non-alcoholic. It is my firm conviction that if Zoedone be introduced into India it will meet the requirements of those who wish to restore their nervous system without impairing their liver."

HAVAS' AGENCY

Rome, 26th.

Cabinet has been reorganised under Depretis, who retains portfolio of Interior. It was found impossible to form a new Cabinet, and the King was very reluctant to dissolve the Deputies.

The Foreign Affairs portfolio, vacant by Cairoli's irrevocable resignation, has been given to Mancini, and the other Ministers remain at their posts.

THE MAY FEASTS

There is always a certain political importance attached to the celebration of the May feasts, and the state of the country, the popularity of the Government, or the condition of the people is ever judged by the number of people in the Plaza Victoria on 25th of May. This rather equivocal barometer of National feeling and prosperity marked its highest figure on Wednesday. Never before did we witness such a demonstration in the Plaza; the jam was worse than at Charing Cross 3 years ago when the lamented Lord Beaconsfield returned from Berlin with the Peace with honor treaty in his pocket. The 25th of May this year was a sharp, cold day; it was ushered in with the increased salutes from the war vessels, and at noon and sundown these salutes were repeated. Sharp to the moment, Prest. Roca drove in from his quinta on the Flores Road in the grand coach of state, and he arrived at the Government House ahead of his Ministers. The plazas were lined with military, and at 1 o'clock, Lord Mayor Alvear at the head of the Municipality marched on foot to the Nat. Government House, to salute the President. Shortly after President Roca, attended by all his ministers and officers of state, walked from the Government House to the Cathedral, where Mr Perez del Cerre, Master of Ceremonies, had everything arranged. The whole main aisle was filled with public functionaries, and right at the foot of the grand altar was the chair of state for the President. The Corps Diplomatique mustered very strong, as also the Legislators and general officers. At the conclusion of the Te Deum, the Lord Mayor and Municipal left the church and at the door of the Municipality awaited the President, who on his arrival at once took his place in the balcony; beside him we noticed H.E. Doctor Dardo Rocha, Governor of Buenos Aires, and his Ministers, and next were the Brazilian and German Ministers Plenipotentiary, sparkling in gold lace and Baron Gondin wore a sash.

General Lavalle, who was chief in command, took up his post on horseback right in front of the Municipal balcony, and then the troops began to defile before the President. Colonel Donovan, at the head of his regiment, led off the review. The troops looked better than any we have previously seen, and the horses of the Cavalry and Lancers were in splendid condition; an infantry regiment, called the Marines, attracted much notice for its admirable equipment: we believe most of the men are from Entre Rios. The Artillery mustered 17 cannon, nearly all Krupp steel pieces.

At the conclusion of the review Mr. Alvear led the President, the Governor and the rest of the guests to a banquet-table which was spread in the adjoining sala.

In the meantime the troops marched up Calle Victoria from the Plaza wheeled down Calles Peru and Florida, until arriving at the Retiro, whence they were dismissed to their barracks.

Calles Peru and Florida were gaily decorated with flags and the balconies crowded. The city presented a very gay appearance, and the streets were thronged.

In the evening the fireworks in the Plaza were witnessed by thousands, and Colon was, as it always is on the 25th of May, filled to the utmost. President Roca occupied the state box with the Governor. All the other theatres in town were equally crowded, and the day passed off as one of the greatest celebrations of the event which it commemorates.

THE LUJAN RACES

The Clerk of the Weather was in a very cool humour on Wednesday morning, and mufflers and heavy ulsters were to be seen on every man in the special that left Parque Station at 9 o'clock for old Lujan. Ladies were few and far between in the carriages, the wintry day no doubt keeping them at home. The run down was pleasant enough, and accomplished in good time.

We give below the result of both days' running, the triumph of Messrs Casey's horses in the two great events of the meeting evoking the most thundering hurrahs from their numerous countrymen on the ground. The ring got hit on several fevents, especially in the Lujan Handicap, as the winner was hardly mentioned in the betting, up to the previous night. 'La Sport' did a roaring business. About 380 tickets were sold on Druid, who was also taken against the field, and only 118 on the winner. One party invested $3,500 on him and pocketed $90000. Only four tickets were taken on Dinah, and the lucky buyers fobbed $7,800 each. There was also a deal of private betting. Everybody was glad at the success of Messrs Casey and the Kemmis stud.

The following are the results of the running on both days.

FIRST DAY.

1. J Garrahan's Infeliz
2. P Castro's Patarata

3. J J Zapiola's Placida.

Handicap, 1½ round—Prize $10,000.

1. E Murphy's Ibrahim
2. E Casares's Pincen
3. T P Bosch's Eureka

Four entries, all started. Pincen led to within a few squares of winning post, when Ibrahim's jockey called on him and he won easily.

Handicap, two rounds—Prize $5,000.

1. M J Campos's Perezoso
2. H O Rorke's Torito
3. E M Casares's Never-no-more

Trial Stakes—Prize $12,000, Half Round

1. Sta Teresa Stud Narcissus
2. F Fernandez's Acolito
3. J P Bosch's Soldado

Seven entries, five ran. Rambler was the favourite. Rayo de Oro showed vicious temper and would not start. Narcissus led the whole way and won easily.

Grand Lujan Handicap—Prize $50,000, One Round

1. Js. Casey's Dan Tucker
2. H Lozano's Druid
3. P Ham's Priapo

Eleven entries, seven started. Druid was the favourite and kept lead to within a few yards of the winning post, when 'old Dan Tucker' passed him and won the race of the day by a length. Blissfull last.

Fourth Race, one round—Prize $30,000.

1. D Church's Zanoni
2. M. Villar's Bel Demonio
3. G Anderson's Eolo.

Six entries, four ran. Eolo was the favourite, but Zanoni won easily, and the talent were again hard hit.

Western Railway Handicap, prize $8,000—One Round.

1. T B Bosch's Reina del Monte
2. E Casey's Huerfana
3. D Gibbings's Ivanhoe

Five entries, all started. Ivanhoe was the favourite and freely taken against the field. Huerfana kept the lead to within a few squares of the winning post, when Reina came up to her, and only managed to pass the post first by a neck, amid tremendous excitement.

The Trent's Mails

London, April 25th

Early yesterday morning the body of the late Lord Beaconsfield was removed from Curzon street to Hughenden. Yesterday references to the late Earl were made in the pulpits of most of the churches and chapels of the metropolis, and the same appears from our provincial telegrams to have been the case throughout the country.

Preaching yesterday morning at the English church in the Rue d'Aguesseau, Bishop Claughton referred to Lord Beaconsfield's death The noble earl, he said, had set an example which young men would do well to follow, and however reproached by his adversaries with a preference for a warlike policy, the deceased statesman had been instrumental in saving Europe from an appalling conflagration.

Our Paris correspondent telegraphs a communication made by M Roustan, the French Consul at Tunis, to the Bey, in which he states that the French Government will hold his Highness personally responsible for any injuries suffered by European residents.

In a telegram received by the Viceroy at Simla from Colonel St. John, dated the 21st instant, it is stated that the evacuation of Candahar was completed, without disturbance or trouble of any sort, at noon, all the guards having been transferred to the Ameer's people. The union jack was hauled down from the citadel under a salute of 31 guns. The British troops were in camp half a mile from the town, and were to march the next day.

It is now confirmed that M Mavromichaelis, the Greek Minister of War, has resigned. M Valtinos has been appointed his successor, and was present at the Cabinet Council which was subsequently held to consider the terms of the reply to be made to the last Note of the Powers.

A Constantinople telegram states that in diplomatic circles it was expected that the reply of the Porte to the Collective Note of the Powers presented on the 19th instant will signify its acceptance of the modifications of the new frontier line therein proposed.

According to a telegram received at Constantinople on the 23rd inst., Dervish Pasha had another successful engagement with the soldiers of the Albanian League. Dervish Pasha made his entry yesterday into Prizrend. The Albanian League has been dissolved, and has now entirely ceased to exist.

Four persons, formerly employed as domestic servants in the Imperial Palace at Constantinople, have been arrested on the charge of having assassinated the late Sultan Abdul Aziz. They confess to having suffocated His Majesty, after which they proceeded to open the veins in his arms, in order to make it believed that the Sultan had committed suicide.

An accident has occurred to a train on the Denver and Rio Grande Railway, in New Mexico, by which eight persons were killed and many injured. Ones of the carriages fell over a precipice 150 feet in height.

Intelligence has been brought by a courier to Algiers to the effect that the 400 Meharis sent to the succour of the detachments belonging to M Pobequin's expedition, have returned, having only been able to collect a dozen survivors, who were greatly attenuated by hunger and fatigue. M Pobequin and 15 of his followers died of hunger, after having undergone terrible sufferings.

Signatures are being collected in Catalona to a petition asking the Spanish Government not to conclude any treaty of commerce with England, and urging the wine-growers of Spain to reduce the alcoholic scale of their wines for sale in the English market.

According to intelligence received up to yesterday at Bombay the condition of affairs in the Bheel country has slightly improved. The Bheels of Mahikenta, Donguapoor, and Banawarra are quiet, and no fresh complications have arisen in the neighbourhood of Kherwarra.

On Saturday evening a fire occurred at the Civil Service Co-operative Company's buildings, Haymarket. Damage to the extent of several thousand pounds' value was done, chiefly to the roof and upper floor.

On Saturday a raid was made on the premises of a boardinghouse in Limehouse-causeway, and a Lascar crew who had been housed there were taken charge of by the police, and sent off by rail to Glasgow to join their ship. The arrests, the first of the kind, were made under a clause in the Merchant Shipping Amendment Act.

On Saturday, James Laver was remanded by the Southwark magistrate on a charge of killing Lydia Carne, whom, it was alleged, he had kicked downstairs.

The polling for the vacancy in West Cheshire yesterday resulted in the return of the Conservative candidate by a majority of three hundred and eighty-two, Mr Tollemache polling four thousand eight hundred, and Mr Tomkinson four thousand four hundred and eighteen.

The question of compensation to agricultural tenants was discussed at a crowded meeting of the members of the Devonshire Club, held at Exeter, yesterday, and presided over by Sir John Kennaway, M.P. The speakers included Sir Thomas Acland, who explained the Bill he introduced into the House of Commons for securing compensation to agricultural tenants. It was generally admitted that legislation on the lines of that measure would be most desirable in the interests of all concerned.

A strike is threatened by the men employed at all the collieries of the Marquess of Londonderry in Durham, and it is reported that should the threat be carried out the Masters' Association will retaliate by closing other collieries, to prevent the men at work in them supporting those on strike.

At the resumed Land Convention, in Dublin, yesterday, Mr Parnell submitted a resolution declining to accept responsibility for the Land Bill in its present shape, and expressing doubt whether it is possible to make it acceptable; but recommending certain Amendments, and, failing adequate success in carrying them, to oppose the Bill on the third reading. Mr. Sexton, M.P., adduced as a reason for not at once rejecting the measure, that probably Mr Gladstone might appeal to the country, and possibly there might be as the result a Conservative Ministry. Mr. Dillon, M.P., declared that the Bill throughout was a dishonest measure. and that it was hopeless to expect to improve it as the Land League desired: for the Government could not do justice to Irish tenants without splitting their Cabinet and their Party. After prolonged discussion the Resolution was adopted, Mr Parnell giving a pledge that unless the Bill were so amended in Committee as to satisfy the reasonable expectations of the people he would have nothing further to say to it. A further Resolution was adopted, to call another Convention before the Bill reached its third reading, in order to decide whether the Bill, as then amended, was acceptable. The Convention was then closed.

Mr Parnell yesterday endeavoured to obtain admission to Kilmainham Prison to see the persons in custody under the Coercion Act, but failed, as the prisoners had already been visited by friends, and Mr Parnell did not give his name.

Our Paris Correspondent, who thinks that open warfare between France and Tunis is only a question of a few days at the outside, suggests that a British Squadron should at once be despatched to Tunis for the protection of the foreign residents. The Bey has sent a Circular to the Consuls, which he asks them to telegraph to their Governments, throwing all reponsibility on the French if they invade his territory, and asking the Powers to acknowledge his attitude as legitimate.

Foreign bonds were offered, and a decline took place in Greek, Russian and Turkish, the depression being most marked in the latter. No gold operations occurred at the Bank.

LATEST FROM THE DOURO.

St. Vincent, April 23d.

Dear Standard.

Here we are after a pleasant but rather monotonous transit. Not touching at the Brazilian ports is a hardship. Before we embark it appears a great advantage to make the direct trip to Lisbon, but all repent it. Otherwise we cannot complain, Captain Kemp is a treasure, and the Company can be congratulated in having the most popular Captain afloat.

Amongst the 1st class passengers we have more Argentines than English, Irish and Scotch altogether. If that is not a sign of the times I do not know what it is. What a change since the Boyne, nine years ago, took three hundred passengers with only four Argentines amongst them. You can moralise on this when you have time.

Next departure, we have Captain Gomez and sixty officers and sailors going to bring out the great ironclad Admiral Brown.

Captain Kemp says they are a magnificent body of sailors (all Argentines) and their discipline is perfect. The Almirante Brown is a guarantee of peace, as no vessel in South American waters will be able to engage her successfully. Good luck to her and her gallant crew.

Dancing on deck nearly every night. No scarcity of music vocal and instrumental. The Argentines are of course the best dancers, but then that is natural to the climate, the accomplishment comes to them without study. The only grumbling on board is that there is too much eating and drinking. The viands are so good that many are tempted to tax their digestive powers too severely.

Adios, I have to play ball now.

Yours

EDITOR'S TABLE.

All the fuss, firewo k', feasting and flaunting is over. We describe in another column the fetes and the races at Lujan, but for to-day find it impossible to make space for the Athletic Sports, which, we hear, were excellent.

The Rev. James W. Fleming will preach to-morrow at the Flores Chapel of Ease at half-past three o'clock. The Sunday School at the Scotch Church will be held an hour earlier than usual.

All sporting men from the old country love a Derby 'Sweep'. It reminds them of old times. By an announcement in another column we see that one will be drawn on Monday next at the Bodega. The prominent favourites are Peregrine, (winner of the 2,000 guineas stakes) St. Louis, Sir Charles, Scobell, Barrett, Fortisimo, Bal Gal, Geologist, and Golden Plover. The race will be run at Epsom on Wednesday next, and the result will likely be known here the following day.

The R.M.S. Trent brings papers from London to 25th. Lord Beaconsfield's funeral was to take place next day. H.R. Highness the Prince of Wales and other members of the Royal family and Mr Gladstone were invited to attend it, The Nihilists are worse than ever in Russia, and the whole European press warn the Czar of the certain result of his repressive measures. The Empress, who is 'enciente', has secured the pardon of the woman who is in prison, in the same condition, and was to have been hanged when her child was born. The extent to which the Nihilists now go may be imagined from the fact that a sentry on guard was found parading his post with one of their proclamations posted on his back, without his knowing anything of it, Mr Bradlaugh, M.P. who had such a conscientious objection to swearing a year ago, now wants to take the oath, but the House refuses to let him. Nothing very fresh about the Irish Land Bill.

Things at Montevideo continue to warm up, and the beginning of the end cannot be very far off. President Vidal has issued a decree forbidding the newspapers all over the country to discuss politics, directly or indirectly. Five thousand national dollars is the fine for infringement. Half the people in Montevideo are preparing to come up here. It was thought that foreign marines would land last night.

Good wool sold in the South Plaza yesterday at 93: and 'regular' as low as 83½.

We have an interesting letter from a passenger home by the Douro. They had a jolly voyage to Saint Vincent, but regretted not having called at lovely Rio.

A Municipal chemical laboratory will be established next year, to protect the citizens from the frightful adulterations of food and drink now going on. It is about time.

The play at the Politeama to-night 'Un segreto d'amore,' will be given in the Piedmontese dialect, which few Italians but Sardinians can understand.

La Favorita is the opera at the Colon Theatre to-night.

A horse belonging to Mr Hernandez died the other day of hydrophobia, in spite of the efforts of half a dozen intelligent 'vets.'

We have received by the mail a New South Wales newspaper for Mr Charles Drake.

We call the attention of the public to the four cows and two bulls (of the shorthorn breed) introduced by Mr McClennan, and advertized to be sold, by Messrs. Bulrich, on the 1st June; they are well worthy of the inspection of estancieros.

There is a lull in the 'projects' business. The fetes seem to have knocked them out of people's heads. Something new in this direction is anxiously looked for.

Fifteen hundred Bolivians in silver were stolen from a train on the Campana Railway on the 24th. They were on the way to the Nat. Bank in Concordia, and the man in charge of them got out at the Recoleta for a moment when two seedy looking gentlemen seized the boxes and carried them to a corner behind the station, where they filled their pockets. A peon saw them and they ran away. Instead of giving the alarm, the peon began to fill his own pockets, but somebody else saw him and brought the stationmaster on the scene. About 750 Bolivians are gone, and the peon is the only one in custody as yet.

The Revista Medica says that typhoid fever is increasing daily in the city. Bad news this.

There was not a single watch stolen in Plaza Victoria this year during the fetes, owing to the police having locked up 70 of the most prominent pick-pockets from Tuesday evening till yesterday morning.

Another large batch of Montevidean refugees arrived here yesterday morning in the Cosmos.

Advices from Panama report the destruction of the town of Buenaventura by fire, and 1500 people left homeless. Not much 'buena ventura' about this.

The Patria Argentina is now publishing some excellent articles on Free Banking. To this favour we must come at last, as the proper solution of our monetary muddle.

We hear a rumour of a terrible accident in Calle Callao, or that neighbourhood, where the floor over an old 'letrina' gave way, and a young lady fell in and was suffocated before help could arrive.

The Rosarinos celebrated the 25th in good style. Two thousand five hundred gas jets illuminated the Plaza 'al giorno,' and the fireworks were also very brilliant. There was also a grand ball at the Municipality.

A horrid murder is reported in the Montevidean papers. Three Neapolitans lived in the same room, and during the night two of them battered the other's brains out, to steal the little money he had earned as a stevedore; they then tied a stone to his neck and pitched him into the sea. The murderers have been arrested.

THE MURDER IN CORRIENTES.

Naranjito, May 23, 1881.

To the Editor of the Standard.

Dear Sir,

I am happy to inform you that the last of the murderers of M'Donald and Guthrie passed up well secured to-day in the train to Monte Caseros.

He had the watch and ring of M'Donald, and also the 'recado' of Guthrie, so that now the whole thing will come out.

I hope you will use your influence with the British Minister to hurry on the Government to do what is right, in having the men shot here and not sending them on to the capital, because if they are sent on there, then good bye to justice, as they in a short time will be back again to do worse still.

Yours very sincerely,

Sunscriber.

The gold market opened very firm, and spite of all the pressure of projects, &c. advanced 5 cents and held to that advance, closing at 28.45, being ten cents over Tuesday's price. The cash sales amounted to 56,474 pats, but the sales for the end of the month amounted to 279,000 pats. evidently liquidation purchases, prices advanced from 28.40 to 28.50, but then stopped and closed under at 28.45. Time prices also advanced to-day for end of June to 28.10, and for end of July 28.

Cedulas advanced slightly under purchases for end of month and June. National Bank Shares held very stiff, and on the heel of this month's liquidation a new speculation in this stock may be looked for. The article in the Patria Argentina this morning showing the splendid business that now must fall into the National Bank, and which will give the shareholders at least a fifteen per cent per annum dividend, was much spoken of on 'Change, and of course tends to improve the stock. Prices for cash held even at 93½, the chief business was for the end of June closing at 94¾.

Provincial Bonos very firm at 4 premium, and Empresitto Popular at par.

Tramway Belgrano shares seem to have caved in a little, and dropped from 73 to 63, a small lot cash sold at 65. The impression on the Bolsa is that the stock has a future. Roads and Bridges sold at one premium, and many buyers at this rate, but none to be had.

Messrs Yarrow Hott & Co. have launched in Montevideo a fine new steamer, the Neptune, from the Mana dock. The brightest thing on 'Change to-day was the Old Gas Company share; the dividend has been declared and paid, 10 per cent for last half year of 1880, and 10 per cent for present half year, and one new share bonus for every old share. There are few Companies in the whole joint stock world that can beat the Old Gas Company. Its history for the last 15 years has been a succession of prize dividends and prize shares, and the few who have held to their shares since 1865 can well testify to the truth of our remarks. The capital of the Gas Company is now raised simply by its own earnings and its own savings from 18,600,000 m/c to 37,200,000 m/c. The property is about the best dividend paying in this market.

The Provincial Bank had but few applications for discount to-day, nevertheless about 4 millions dis ounted; as for gold discount not even talked about.

Up to to-day there was a ring of unbelievers on 'Change who still maintained that the loan bond was not yet signed; to-day, however, Mr Heimendahl received telegram from Paris, dated 24th, confirming the news in Sr Balcarce's telegram; bond signed and everything arranged. It was whispered on 'Change that on Monday the Government perhaps begun to draw, it was also said that Minister Romero is determined to bring out gold from Europe.

At last we have to announce a rise in the exchange market, all day brokers were offering bills on London at 49, and on Paris at 5.19, but no takers. It seems now that not even the private banks are takers; and at 4 o'clock it was announced that bills were offering at 49½: bets were made on 'Change that before 3 weeks exchange will be at 50d.

A splendid lot of wool in the South Market this morning, to Belloq, sold for 118 m/c per ar.

The news from the U. States up to yesterday most favorable for dry hides, and kerosene at 12½ cts.

One lot of Roads and Bridges 10,000, sold 3 days ago at 2 premium.

At the escribanias we hear the greatest activity in sales of estancia lands, 6 leagues just purchased by an English house for 1,800,000 m/c. Mr Rom sold to-day 14 sq. leagues of land behind the Bay of San Blas at reserved rate

The sale of 5000 salted hides, Podesta, 65 lbs., at 45½ rls. is reported.

Mr Hunter, of Paysandu, was welcomed on 'Change. This gentlemen represents the London meat preserving firm of Stevenson & Co., established in Paysandu, and now doing such a very large business. The firm has shipped this year to England 70,000 tins, which sold splendidly in the London market; besides preserving tongues, they make the most delicious corned beef, which turns our saladero beef to come higher use than charque or jerked beef. We have received some samples of this corned beef and will report on it when eaten.

Messrs J. Lasalle fils, despatched the s.s. Dago on the 25th inst. for Rio Janeiro with the following cargo—

And at Rio Janeiro this steamer has engaged 30,000 bags coffee for the U. States.

The following is the latest from the United States about wool:—

"Thus far this week the movement of supplies has been a little slow, but probably full in proportion to the average for the period covered, and sellers have lost no ground since the date of our last report. Customers show a continued determination to move carefully and without excitement, through which they are likely to lose advantage, but wants as developed are fair and seem likely to increase rather than diminish, provided no attempt is made to rush to cost. No serious movement in the way of marking up figures, however, has thus far been made, nor does there seem an inclination that way among the larger holders, the disposition rather favoring the culture of all demand possible by preserving attractive terms and working out as much of the accumulation as possible. The new clips of the middle and Eastern sections of the country are some little distance off, but there is a full stock of wool on hand to dispose of, and, with the California spring clipping already under way, a much stronger showing than now made would be necessary to induce holders to assume any decided position of firmness. Other large markets on the seaboard are also lacking in any great amount of strength, and taken altogether, buoyancy is a feature not at present prominent in the operations in wool. In short, the situation seems to be that a few more buyers have appeared, and instead of the former drag a little more business is done every day, with sellers hopeful of an early increase. Carpet wools are pretty firmly held, owing to the small accumulation, but rather lack demand at the moment.

Messrs Guillermo Gowland & Co sold to-day by auction ½ league of land, situated in the partido of Chacabuco, for the sum of $ 161,250 m/c. The valuation was 92,000 m/c. This price is at the rate of 1,790,000 per league.

Business on 'Change was resumed to-day after the two days holiday interruption; perhaps the most successful during the recreative interlude was our much esteemed friend, Mr Edward Casey, whose horses at the Lujan Races won for the sojourning proprietor about $200,000 m/c., which will more than cover all his expenses in Europe. The May feasts passed off admirably, and people returned to business with a freshened gout. It was expected that some one would have telegrams from London or Paris, but if any message came it was well kept up, and no one seemed to have anything from Europe. In the absence of telegrams we were thrown back on projects; the two which at present most hold the public mind are Dr Romero's to pay off the Bank, and the free banking scheme of the Patria, which will be found in this column. Dr Romero's project meets with universal approbation as simple, honest and to the point, although many think that we require something at the back of it to support the convertibility which it aims to establish, and we believe a further scheme is being drawn up with that object. The durability of specie payment, however, seems to depend more on our crops and produce than our bank managers or Legislators, and if the country continues progressing, as it is at present, there can be little doubt we shall be able to hold our own in a specie point of view. The present lambing season is said to be one of the best in the Plate for very many years; all the flocks are filled with lambs, and the season has proved so very mild that the farmers have an exceptional increase. The advices from the colonies are equally favorable, and more land than ever is being ploughed up and prepared for the new crop; both these points bear strongly on the 'curso forzoso' question.

An article in yesterday's Patria Argentina on free banks has attracted much and merited notice, and finds great favour in commercial circles, since it smoothes the way out of many financial difficulties caused by bank privileges and bank monopolies that have so long checked this market. The following is the scheme proposed:—

Art. 1st—The consolidation of the debts due by the National Government and Provincial Government to the Bank in Fondos Publicos of 5 per cent interest and 1 per cent amortisation.

Art. 2nd—The emission of 50,000,000 pats. in Fondos Publicos for the payment of the above, and also for the amortisation of the Foreign and Home Debt.

Art. 3rd—A law granting to every bank that applies to the National Government the right of emission of National Bank notes for an equal amount of their capital, and conditioned on their depositing in guarantee of said emission a like amount of Fondos Publicos of 5 per cent; and their holding in their treasury gold coin to the extent of 25 per cent of their emission.

Art. 4th—The maximum of said emission in the Republic to be 60,000,000 pats gold.

Art. 5th—National guarantee for the conversion of said notes to be received at their par value in all the Public Offices.

Art. 6th—Said issue to be convertible into National coin, and the taxes and budgets to be adapted to said coin.

Art. 7th—Said emission and said National coin to be legal tender throughout the Republic.

It is quite evident to all who study this currency question that we are fast driving to some such plan as embodied in the foregoing; and the first step towards this new financial system is the Romero project.

Last week the Minister of the Interior ordered the Municipal deposits to be withdrawn from the Provincial Bank and placed in the National Bank. These deposits amounted to about two and a half millions currency, and we hear that next week all the judicial deposits in the Provincial Bank arising out of suits, properties, &c in this city will be transferred to the National Bank. This will of course prove an immense support to the National Bank, and will probably lead to a fresh advance of the shares.

Advices from Entre Rios are more favourable; we learn from English estancieros that the province is greatly improving, land and stock increasing in value, and the estancieros doing well.

The following fresh advices from Paysandu we received this morning:—

"The weather is very cold here, and the river Uruguay so exceedingly swollen as to considerably cover the railings on the mole. Miss Esmeralda Cervantes gave a concert in the theatre on Sunday night, which was well attended, and the audience were delighted with her playing. Perhaps the most liked of her pieces was the 'Carnaval de Venice' and on an 'encore' being demanded she played the 'Last rose of summer'. People are talking a good deal about the political events passing in Montevideo, and one of the two daily papers, The Constitucion, I hear, is to be suspended. If unfortunately a revolution should break out the want at present of an English Consul would be much felt in this town, particularly by the English settled in the camp, and working men who have no means of attaining a 'papeleta' or protection from serving as soldier."

La traza del ferro carril de Santa Fe a Santiago, cruza estos campos y se radicara una o dos estaciones en ellas.

LORD BEACONSFIELD'S FUNERAL.

REMOVAL OF THE BODY.

SUNDAY AT HUGHENDEN.

In strictest compliance with the letter and spirit of Lord Beaconsfield's expressed desire, his body was removed from 19, Curzon-street, to the Paddington Terminus of the Great Western Railway, in the quietest possible manner, and at an hour when popular demonstration of any kind was impossible. Throughout the whole of Saturday a crowd had awaited before the house, but by midnight it had gradually dispersed, and the opportunity was taken to remove the remains. It was a quarter to one o'clock yesterday (Sunday) morning when a plain hearse, drawn by a single horse, drew up at the door of the deceased earl's residence, and the coffin it contained was taken within doors After a short interval, another vehicle, to which a pair of horses were harnessed, arrived at the house, and the coffin, containing the shell, was carried out and placed inside. It was covered with plain black cloth, and bore the brief inscription engraved in the inner shell. A few minutes later the attendants brought out the floral offerings which have lain beside the body since Tuesday, and having deposited these on the coffin, the hearse drove off to the Paddington terminus of the Great Western Railway, followed by a cab containing Baum, the deceased earl's confidential servant. Without delay the hearse was placed on a carriage truck, and the train left for High Wycombe at twenty minutes past two o'clock.

High Wycombe, Sunday night.

Between three and four o'clock this morning, the remains of the Earl of Beaconsfield were placed on the bier in the drawing-room of Hughenden Manor House, the head of the coffin being towards the portrait of her Majesty the Queen, and the foot in a line with the church, which is visible, through trees, from the windows. Nobody in London or here knew what had been arranged by the executors till their plans had so far been carried into operation. There were at the station two or three representatives of the newspaper press, a few necessary officials of the railway, Mr Hunt, the undertaker, of Wycombe, and not a single inhabitant besides. The engine which drew the special train from Paddington, was named the Queen. Lord Rowton and the two executors, Sir Philip Rose and Sir Nathaniel Rothschild, had preceded the coffin and its attendant party, and had reached Wycombe yesterday evening at about six o'clock, bringing with them despatch-boxes filled with the papers that are in part destined, no doubt, to see the light of history. By the same train which brought the remains of the Earl of Beaconsfield, and a retinue of undertaker's men, travelled the good and faithful servant who has watched by his master's body, with a continuance of the devotion which, in the early stages of the Earl's illness, prompted his lordship to say that Baum had been so good a nurse that he should still be the only one. But nurses more experienced—they could not be more devoted or assiduous—were called in, and did their duty patiently and well, as the trained staff of St John's House are wont to do.

Sad as the closed mansion, which looks down from its wooded height, upon this flourishing town, has seemed since it was deprived of a light which will never more brighten its halls and chambers, but must give place to the milder though not less steady radiance of historic memory, the place yet bears the undisturbed tokens of the great man's cheerful retirement. Hughenden Manor House, which stands at the head of finely-timbered slopes, high above the Wycombe valley, is a modern, or modernised, edifice, uniformly whitened on all sides, but suggesting, by the forms of its architecture, that parts of the building may be somewhat older than the rest, and that originally the brick and stone work would have presented some variety of colour. Its main front, looking to the west, away from the town of Wycombe, is approached by a carriage drive, that sweeps round well-planned plots of landscape gardening. On this side of the house, in front of which the Prince of Wales planted a tree, during his two days' visit, last year, is the drawing-room, containing more than one gracious memorial of the Queen. The half-length portrait of her Majesty, a Royal gift to Lord Beaconsfield on his seventieth birthday, hangs in this apartment. A broad console table, which, on past occasions, has been covered with various ornamental objects of art and curious historical interest, has made way for the bier and its mournful burden. A bronze statuette of her Majesty sitting at her spinning-wheel—the implement being a minutely accurate working model—was wont to be displayed in this room, as also was another of the Queen's gifts, a large volume of Goethe's 'Faust' in a cover of oxydised silver, bearing in relief scenes and figures in illustration of the poem In the panel of the chimney-piece is a portrait of the Viscountess Beaconsfield, the oval frame of which is surmounted by her coronet. Through the drawing-room, immediate access is gained to the library, an apartment quite as greatly hallowed by its personal memories. Its furniture has none of that plain, dull, heavy, and depressing sameness which, for some unaccountable reason, is affected in the usual arrangement of English rooms devoted to literary labour and studious ease. The statesman who remained to the last an author, working pleasantly in the fields of imaginative and life-like fiction, chose to have about him, with his books, all agreeably suggestive and elegant amenities, to brighten and cheer the efforts of his mind; to make them less like efforts even than they were; and to bring him closer in imagination to the social world in which his thoughts when not engaged with the affairs of state and of politics, habitually moved. Tables of buhl and ormolu, luxurious chairs and couches, and a Dresden china cabinet, filled with quaintly delicate ware of the same prized material and workmanship, with pictures and portraits of familiar faces, surrounded the man of letters in his brief escape from the toils and cares of Parliament and party, of Government and of opposition.

Round and about the finely-placed manor-house of Hughenden, the views, the walks and rides are delightfully varied and full of interest. Much has been done by art and more by nature, to adorn the residence and its precincts. On the library side, or east front, of the mansion, a broad, conservatory-like porch of iron-work and glass, adorned with statuary and shrubs, and with a trailing Wisteria, looks upon a beautiful terrace, with a central flight of steps, descending to the lawn, on which are the two trees severally planted by the Queen and the Princess Beatrice, on the occasion of Her Majesty's visit to the Earl, on the bright December day of 1877. Peacocks, for which the park and lawns of Hughenden are famed throughout the county, strut and not unfrequently scream, in this precinct of the domain. From the principal front, on the west, to the terraced side of the house, passing along by the north wing, the path lies through an archway, cut in a screen of box-trees, and trimmed with all the formal precision of Dutch gardening. The glass porch gives entrance to a light and spacious hall, which communicates both with the library and the drawing-room. Here the remains of the Viscountess Beaconsfield lay on a bier, while awaiting removal to the tomb at the east end of the neighbouring church; and to the same temporary resting-place, between three and four o'clock this morning, was borne the coffin of the Earl, her husband, ennobled after she had passed away. From this hall down to the tomb whither he is soon to follow her, the winding path traverses but a short space of ground; for the church stands within the park pales, and is reached in a walk of two or three minutes. Entering the building yesterday, under the kind guidance of the Vicar, the Rev. Henry Blagden, I saw new and old strangely blended; new tiled flooring, on which the old Norman font, trefoiled, but otherwise wholly undecorated by the chisel that wrought upon it eight centuries ago, the border wreathed with fresh flowers from the reverently tended churchyard without; newly-timbered roof; new walls of Bath stone, reaching down to their juncture, at the chancel on the south side with the 'clunch,' or flint and chalk, of the old monkish masonry. The tombs are very old indeed, some of them older than those of the de Montforts, with their lion-bearing shields and other tokens of Royal lineage; and one low-lying stone, bearing a recumbent figure in slight relief, of which memorial, save that it must be, from certain signs plain to the antiquary, almost as old as the time of the Conquest, no man knoweth name, or age, or circumstance of any kind. It is a monument that has long cultivated its very cause and function, and has ceased to be monumental.

Here sat Lord Beaconsfield's trusted secretary and attached friend, Lord Rowton, with Sir Nathaniel Rothschild, Sir Philip Rose and Mr. C. F. Rose, one of his sons, at the service, this morning. The church was very full, and I cannot think there was one member of the congregation who will not retain a vivid recollection of the day's homily. I may mention, not as a peculiar but as a common incident, that the organ was played by Mrs. Blagden, the vicar's wife.

The sermon was preached upon the text contained in the Second Lesson of the day, already mentioned, the words being, 'That which thou sowest is not quickened unless it die.'

The Vicar of Hughenden spoke with the utmost modesty of his own relations with the Earl of Beaconsfield, it is certain that, inasmuch as his lordship took a warm interest in all that concerned the nice little church, and the doings connected with it, he must have had frequent consultations with its clergyman. Lord Beaconsfield was lay rector of his parish; and no one who has the slightest pretence to a knowledge of his character, would suppose him capable of taking the name of an office and neglecting the office itself. Moreover, the Earl was a frequent visitor at the Vicarage, a house beautifully situated above the little plateau on which stands the church, together with a picturesque old group of red-brown cottages, in which a few pensioners of the estate are housed. The scenery overlooked by those members of Mr. Blagden's family resident at the vicarage was often declared by Lord Beaconsfield to be finer than any prospect within the range commanded by the Manor House. Rumours, which at the present time can be but rumours, are afloat with regard to the Earl's will, and his youthful nephew, son of Mr. Ralph Disraeli, and named Coningsby, after the famous novel so entitled, is freely spoken of as the heir.

The Prince of Wales and other members of the Royal family attending the obsequies of Lord Beaconsfield, assemble at the Paddington Station of the Great Western Railway shortly after one o'clock to-morrow, and leave town at 1.20 p.m. by special train. The Royal party will arrive at Wycombe Station at 2.25 p.m., and drive in the Queen's carriages to Hughenden Manor.

Mr. Gladstone has been invited by the executors to attend the funeral, and it is understood that the Prime Minister intends to avail himself of the invitation.

Mrs S. A. Allen's World's Hair Restorer

The Genuine only in Pink Paper Wrappers.

It cannot fail to Restore Grey Hair to its youthful Colour, Gloss and Beauty.

IT IS NOT A DYE

It ever proves itself the natural strengthener of the Human Hair.

THERE are two special qualities which determine and fix the superiority and excellence of Mrs S. A. Allen's World's Hair Restorer:—First—its prompt quick action, and the new growth, life, and vigour that it is sure to give to the hair, never failing by a few applications to Restore Grey or White Hair to its Youthful Colour, imparting to the hair a delightful aroma, fresh, delicate, and unchangeable in any climate. Second—its easy application without any previous preparation of the hair; without that sticky and disagreeable sulphur odour found and complained in other preparations. It never stains the skin or linen. It retrains the hair in any desired position, and is cooling and cleaning to the scalp.

Use no other Preparations with it, not even Oil or Pomade or Zylo-Balsamum

To Restore Grey Hair, Mrs. S. A. Allen's World's Hair Restorer is the best.

Because it is made from Choice Materials, and prepared with the utmost Care and Skill.

Because over Forty Years the Favourite Preparation, enjoying by far the Largest Sale, it must be the Best.

Because it Does Not Dye the Hair, but Strengthens it. Grey Hairs soon Disappear.

Because by its Gentle Tonic Action the Roots are strengthened—New Life, and Hair Natural Colour.

Because the Soft and Silky Texture of Healthy Hair follows its use.

THE HAIR

Its Beauty can be Restored and Preserved

"Beautiful Hair,
Nature's Crown, Luxuriant and Beautiful Hair."

It cannot truthfully be said that at any age, period, or condition of life the Hair can or should be allowed to take care of itself, and requires no aid to stimulate and maintain its growth.

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
(Ex Army Medical Staff)

CHLORODYNE

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July 12th 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for coughs, consumption, bronchitis, asthma.

CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests those too often fatal diseases—Diptheria, Fever, Croup, Ague.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitations and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis &c.

Extracts from Medical Opinions.

The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport, that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne. See Lancet, Dec. 31st, 1864.

From A. Montgomery, Esq. late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay. 'Chlorodyne is the most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma, and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health, after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when other remedies had failed.'

Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India, reports (December 1865) that in nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr. J. Collin Browne's Chlorodyne was administered, the patient recovered.

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera. 'So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases.'

See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal, August 1st, 1860, which states that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the inventor of Chlorodyne, that it is always right to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered.

CAUTION. None genuine without the words 'Dr. J. Collis Browne' on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.
